

News and Announcements:

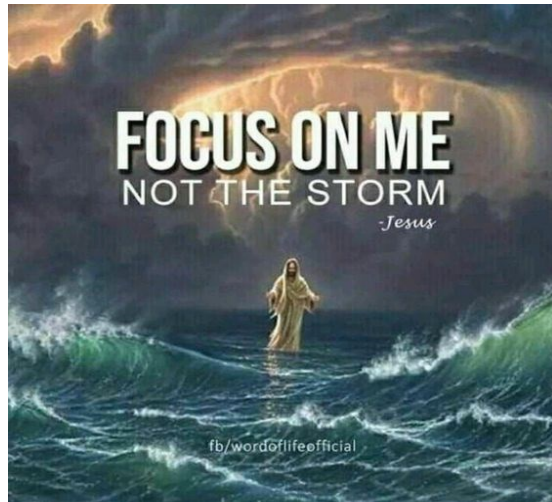

MESSAGE FROM FR. KRAMPER: The 2022 Dixon County Fair is now in the history books. I spent two days there and enjoyed the exhibits, the horses and machinery, the farm animals and the petting zoo, the lights and excitement of the carnival rides and the peach pie at the food stands. The Dixon County Fair is the size I like best.

The English language has synonyms that are fun to put into one sentence. Here are three examples: (1) I bought two ice cream sandwiches at the 4H booth, so I could give them to friends to eat, too; (2) There were antique cars there, that had their original engines; and (3) the fare for the merry-go-round at this fair was fare.

NOTE: Help me find the first field corn tassel, so I can write it in my book for 2022. Call me (402) 360-2405 and, if you are the first, there will be a little reward.

OVER 60 NOON POTLUCK: Sacred Heart Sodality of St. Peter's Church will host the Over 60 Noon potluck on Thursday, July 21st at St. Peter's Hall. Please bring a potluck food item, bingo prize and a friend to enjoy a social afternoon. All ages welcome!

Topping Your Tank

A Poem From Fr. Kramper

(Note of explanation:) We are all watching the fluctuating prices at the gas stations. This poem was written after there had been a gas shortage and a question about topping your tanks.

TOPPING YOUR TANK

In the gasoline shortage of the late 70's, Filling stations discouraged customers
from topping their tanks.

GOD IS DIFFERENT.

Every one of His churches is a “filling Station” for our hungry spirits.

Not only does He want us to come in often,
But His fill-ups are Free
For the asking.

He encourages us to keep our spirit-tank full,
So we will always have enough to get Back for another fill-up.

Sometimes we think that our Sunday-trip
to church is to fill God
With worship and keep Him off our backs.

The truth is much better than that:
We come so God can top-our-tanks
With His grace and His love
And forgiveness is how we can Free our backs from
The burdens of the world!

Save the Date

For the Pastoral Conference -

October 1st this will be via zoom and held locally for all to attend. More information will be posted in the coming weeks.

We are excited to broaden the audience
for this year's conference and help pastors draw more parishioners into the mission of Jesus to “make disciples of all nations” (Mt 28:19). The conference will 1)
highlight the Archdiocesan Vision & Priorities and the Big Goal 2) increase awareness of our current reality and 3) evoke a desire in your people to respond communally to the call to be missional.

Jesus

IT IS THAT NAME. JUST THAT MENTION OF THAT BEAUTIFUL
NAME, THAT WILL ONE DAY
BRING THE WORLD AND ALL AROUND IT TO ITS KNEES.
